Interpreter or Expert Witness? Ethical Considerations

CCIO webinar presented by:
Ernest Niño-Murcia

Saturday, May 3, 2025 | 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon ET

While court interpreters possess relevant expertise in certain areas, actually rendering an expert opinion as a witness poses ethical challenges. This session will explore different situations in which an interpreter might be asked to render an expert opinion while discussing the ethical challenges involved, including scope of practice, conflict of interest, and why certain expert work may or may not be appropriate.

Members: $20.00 | Non-Members: $30.00 | 2.0 CIEs Approved

Ernest Niño-Murcia is an interpreter and translator based in Des Moines, Iowa. Both state and federally certified, he has interpreted legal proceedings and prepared translations, transcriptions, and expert witness reports/testimony for clients in the private and public sectors. As a speaker and trainer, he has presented live and online sessions through organizations including NAJIT, the University of Arizona's National Center for Interpretation, and the U.S. Department of Justice, among others.
