

save the date!

save the date!

---

For Spanish Language Court Interpreters

---

Interpreting Criminal Law into Spanish: Equivalency, Technical & Ethical Considerations

CCIO Webinar Presented By:
Sandro Tomasi

Saturday, May 4, 2024 | 10 a.m. - 1:15 p.m. ET

This webinar will present English-Spanish terminology for criminal law and procedure, review translation techniques and discuss ethical issues that can come up while interpreting legal terminology. Attendees will receive a mini glossary with links to entries from the highly acclaimed Tomasi's Law Dictionary.

---

CCIO Members: $20.00 • Non-Members: $30.00

---

Sandro Tomasi, Spanish-English interpreter and translator since 1991, is currently a New York State staff court interpreter and a professor at the Austral University Law School. Sandro is the author of the authoritative and acclaimed lexicographic work, An English-Spanish Dictionary of Criminal Law and Procedure (aka Tomasi's Law Dictionary) and coauthor of Compensation of Court Interpreters in the State of New York, as well as a contributor to other leading lexicographic works, including Black's Law Dictionary. Sandro has trained over 3500 professionals for various associations, state courts and unions.

---

Approval for 3.0 CIE credits pending. Register today at ccio.org

---