

Are you interested in becoming a legal interpreter?

Community and Court Interpreters of Ohio in collaboration with the Supreme Court of Ohio is offering the following two 3-hour webinars for spoken language interpreters.

THE CLASSES ARE FREE, BUT YOU MUST REGISTER AT CCIO.ORG TO PARTICIPATE.

Introduction to Court Interpreting

Presenter: Bill Hargis

Saturday, September 23, 2023
10 a.m. - 1 p.m. EST

Bill Hargis has served as a full time freelance interpreter since 2001. He received his State Court Certification in 2007 in Indiana and by reciprocity in Ohio in 2010. Bill has been a trainer for the Supreme Court of Ohio since 2015, presenting training sessions on Introduction to Court Interpreting, Interpreter Ethics, Legal Procedure and Terminology, and Interpreting in Domestic Violence Cases. He currently serves as President of CCIO.

Court Interpreter Ethics

Presenter: Cynthia Lepeley

Saturday, November 11, 2023
10 a.m. - 1 p.m. EST

Cynthia Lepeley (Ph.D. in Spanish, University of Illinois) is Professor Emerita of Spanish at Heidelberg University in Tiffin, Ohio. A freelance interpreter since 1995, she is federally certified by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts and state certified by the Supreme Courts of Ohio and Michigan.

BOTH CLASSES ARE FREE!

These classes, intended for spoken language interpreters, are designed to introduce the profession of legal interpretation to interested newcomers. No continuing education credits will be awarded.
