“Team Interpreting - An Ethical Discussion”

CCIO Webinar Moderated By:
Ernest Niño-Murcia

Saturday, November 12, 2022 • 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. ET

You have been requested to interpret for a trial with a defendant and a prosecuting witness who both need an interpreter. You are informed that there will be at least one other interpreter hired for the same case. Will you be interpreting only for the Defense? Or, only for the prosecuting witness? Can you interpret for both? Who decides? How do we work together as interpreters for the best outcome? What is “team interpreting”?

These and other questions will be covered in a discussion, led by Ernest Niño-Murcia, on “Team Interpreting”. The discussion will attempt to disentangle the confusion and ethical dilemmas that arise in a variety of legal hearings when two or more interpreters are used.

Members: $10.00 • Non-Members: $30.00

Ernest Niño-Murcia is an interpreter and translator based in Des Moines, Iowa. Both state and federally certified, he has interpreted legal proceedings and prepared translations, transcriptions, and expert witness reports/testimony for clients in the private and public sectors. As a speaker and trainer, he has presented live and online sessions through organizations including NAJIT, the University of Arizona’s National Center for Interpretation, and the U.S. Department of Justice, among others.
